THE BEST IDEAS

This brochure, like all Goway destination travel planners, is a collection of the best travel ideas we recommend you consider when you travel to Central and South America and the polar regions. Many more are featured on our website www.goway.com. Most are designed for the independent traveller but many offer the comfort of travelling with a group.

Some trips will appeal to adventure seekers, others strictly to the discerning traveller who wants the very best. Whatever way you choose to travel, let our experts customize arrangements just for you.

A Touch Of Class

Sumaq Hotel - Machu Picchu, Peru

CLIENT SERVICES

Goway Elite's team of Client Service Officers is on the ground, ready to greet you on arrival and ensure your holiday is off to a stress-free start.

CHARTER FLIGHTS

HELICOPTERS

Central & South America's epic scope, dissected in the south by the Andes, is best seen from the air. Experience a bird's eye view of the stunning Avenue of the Volcanoes in Ecuador, the Andes and Sacred Valley in Peru or simply indulge in an airport to hotel helicopter transfer. More than just sightseeing, a helicopter flight can also be a luxurious private transfer option.

LUXURY TRANSFERS

Bypass the stress of touts and taxis. With a private transfer, your luxury holiday begins the moment you touch down. Travel swiftly in comfort to the Latin America you came to see.

PERSONALIZED EXPERIENCES

Luxury travel in Central & South America is not an exception to the rule but the rule you can write! Every visitor to Peru will see Machu Picchu & the Sacred Valley, but imagine a private tour of and dining at the Larco Museum with a curator. Dine in a lava tube on a Giant Tortoise reserve in the Galapagos Islands or have a private tour of one of the oldest colonial houses in South America, owned & occupied to this day, by the family of one of the original conquistadors. Learn how to cook and prepare chocolate as the Incans did in either Ecuador or Peru – or both – with a private cooking and tasting event. Or immerse yourself in ancient indigenous culture alongside an Inca hill tribe when you visit a local community in the Andes.

Stop at the Casa Rosada, the presidential palace, and nearby Plaza de Mayo, and imagine Evita waving to the crowds from the balcony. Next stop is Recoleta, a truly European and luxurious neighborhood. This evening we embark on a culinary journey through the neighbourhood of Palermo with multiple stops and wine pairings. BD

Day 9. Buenos Aires to Lima, Peru. We transfer to the international airport for our cross-continental flight to Peru. Samba, Tango and Waterfall guests leave us today and Cradle of the Incas guest join us. Hilton Lima Miraflores (2 nights) B

Day 10. Exploring Lima. We visit the modern district of Miraflores and the pre-Inca pyramid of Huaca Pucllana. Visit the home of a real Limean family in the exclusive district of San Isidro. See the historical center, Plaza Mayor (main square), and streets with colonial mansions and Moorish balconies. Dinner at Cala Restaurant. BLD

Day 11. Exploring Cusco. We transfer to the airport for our flight to Cusco. After checking into our Stay of Distinction hotel, enjoy a walking tour of Cusco, the ancient capital of the Inca Empire. Aranwa Cusco Boutique (2 nights) B

Day 12. Cooking Lesson and Cusco Sundowner. The MAP (Pre-Colombian Art Museum) Restaurant in the patio of a colonial style home will teach us how to cook Peruvian, showcasing some of the best traditional Andean dishes. Our day ends with a sundowner cocktail at the fortress of Sacsayhuaman, overlooking what was once the heart and capital of the mighty Inca Empire. BL

Day 13. The Sacred Valley of the Incas. Start off early this morning for Ollantaytambo, an Inca mountaintop site that served as a military, religious, and agricultural center with features that have not changed since the Inca constructed them. A visit to the famous Pisac market will be a highlight of this day, as will a delicious lunch with a horse exhibition at Wayra ranch restaurant. Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba BL

Day 14. Machu Picchu. Awaiting us today is one of the world's greatest wonders, a guided tour of Machu Picchu. We board the luxury Hiram Bingham train that takes us down the scenic Sacred Valley, and enjoy a lunch on board. Tonight, enjoy a complimentary massage. Sumaq Machu Picchu Hotel - Aguas Calientes BLD

Day 15. Machu Picchu to Cusco. Visit the ruins a second time to further explore. We return to Aguas Calientes for our train journey back to Cusco. Aranwa Cusco Boutique B

Day 16. Cusco to Lima. We are transferred to the airport for our afternoon flight to Lima. We visit the Larco Museum. After the visit, enjoy the best of Peruvian gastronomy in the museum's cozy, atmospheric restaurant. Hilton Lima Miraflores BD

Day 17. Depart Lima. Say your farewells to your new friends and be transferred to the airport for your international flight. Most flights from Lima to North America depart late in the evening so there may be opportunities to further explore Lima. B

Isthmus Of Panama

The MV Discovery catamaran is perfect for small ship cruising in Panama

Panama has over a thousand islands in both the Caribbean Sea and Pacific Ocean, highlands covered with cloud forests, flower-filled valleys, prize-winning coffee farms, the most accessible pristine jungle and rainforest anywhere, historical sites that never disappoint and a fascinating capital city with non-stop nightlife.

JOURNEY BETWEEN THE SEAS

DP

7 Days from US $4059

Cruise from the Caribbean Ocean to the Pacific Ocean and enjoy a little bit of everything that Panama offers: history, beaches, nature, culture, gastronomy and the Panama Canal.

Day 1. Panama City to Colon. Start your experiences aboard the Panama Canal Railway train to Colon City. This one-hour railroad trip will allow you to traverse the picturesque trans-isthmian route from the Pacific to the Atlantic Ocean. Board the MV Discovery and set sail in the tropical waters of the Atlantic Ocean. Explore Fort San Lorenzo built by the Spaniards in the 16th century to defend their well known gold trail. LD

Day 2. Gatun Locks Panama Canal. Explore the Chagres River which was used by the conquistadors to move their gold across the Isthmus of Panama en-route from Peru to Spain. Sail towards the entrance of the Panama Canal; you will start by transiting the Gatun Locks, the biggest

set of locks, while enjoying the Caribbean sunset and watching the Canal being lit. BLD

Day 3. Panama Canal to Gatun Lake. Prior to the construction of the Panama Canal, the vast jungle area that is now the Gatun Lake was teeming with an overwhelming abundance of wildlife. As the region was flooded to create the lake, animals took refuge in the mountain peaks, which are now the many islands that dot the renowned lake. Explore Gatun Lake and kayak in Panama Canal waters. BLD

Day 4. Panama Canal. Wake up in the middle of the Panama Canal and join the morning's ship convoy for our southbound canal passage. BLD

Day 5. Darien Jungle. Step aboard a time machine and travel back more than 600 years and journey into the lives of the Embera Indians. BLD

Day 6. Pearl Islands. Snorkel and swim in the waters of the Pearl Islands. The archipelago owes its name to the abundance of pearl oysters which supported a substantial fishery in the early 1900's. BLD

Galapagos Islands Cruises

Perhaps more so than any other place in the world, the fauna of the Galapagos Islands is unique. Charles Darwin's observations of the animals and the subtle variations between races of the same species living on different islands led directly to his theory of natural selection. The islands are blessed with pleasant weather all year round. With land based options, diving and snorkeling opportunities, a trip to the Galapagos Islands will be a memorable journey.

Goway works directly with all the leading cruise operators in the Galapagos offering dozens of cruise vessels. We have short listed our choice of vessels covering all budget ranges.

All pricing is based on a 8 day cruise. Shorter cruise lengths also available and is per person based on twin share.

PRICE INCLUDES: All on board accommodation, all tours as indicated, local guides, island transfers, all meals as indicated by BLD.

NOTE: The domestic flights Quito – Galapagos – Quito (approx $550 USD), Galapagos Park entrance fee of $100USD and visitors ticket of $20USD are included in the trip price. (Subject to change)

Itineraries: Each vessel, based on length of cruise, has its own distinct itinerary. The itineraries are designed to allow visitors to visit all regions of the islands.

CASA ALIAGA VISIT

A visit to Casa Aliaga is to truly step back in time! The Aliaga House is as old as Lima itself. When conquistador Francisco Pizarro founded the capital city on Jan. 18, 1535, he gave the plot adjacent to that of the Government Palace to his trusted ally Jeronimo de Aliaga, so they could be neighbors. Eighteen generations of the Aliaga family have resided in the same mansion ever since - it's been renovated continuously, but it's the oldest house in the Americas. Jeronimo's descendants currently live in a modern annex, but much of the original main house is on display.

Gocta Falls • Kuelap Ruins • Chachapoya

5 Days from US $3204

Head to Peru's north to explore lush rainforest and a pre-Incan world. Visit the third-tallest waterfall in the world, Gocta Falls, explore the Chachapoyas citadel fortress of Kuelap, and visit the Leymebamba Museum to see mummies and other relics of a pre-Incan world.

Day 1. Jaen North Peru. On arrival you are met and transferred by road (4 hours) to the Gocta Lodge, in sight of the magnificent waterfall of the same name. Boxed. Gocta Lodge (2 nights) L

Day 2. Gocta Falls Trek. The walk is a relatively easy 11km return trek to the base of the world's 3rd tallest waterfalls. Trekking through Andean Cloud you round a corner and come face to face with water plummeting from the cliff towering above. BL

Day 3. Visit Kuelap Fortress. Atop a mountain plateau and forgotten by the modern world until in 1843 the site has become an object for explorers, historians and archaeologists. Built by the Chachapoyas, the massive stone walls and hundreds of ruins stand as a reminder of a formidable culture lost to history.

Xalca Hotel (2 nights) BLD

Day 4. Revash. is a collection of tombs near the town of Santo Tomás. The tombs look like houses and are set alongside the ledges of limestone cliffs. The tombs of Revash are built from mud-set stones and are painted in red and white hues. The buildings look like small houses and seem to form mini villages along the face of the cliff. A winding road up and into the Andes take you to a small town from where you begin a short 3km, trek to the ruins. It is an easy walk with a few up and downs. BL

PALCCOYO TREK

Looking for an alternate, easier and shorter trek than the Rainbow mountain that offers equally stunning views; all with 90% less trekkers and less altitude to climb? Then look to the Palccoyo trek.

It is an early start from either Cusco or the Sacred Valley. You will be picked up from your hotel and then drive approximately 2 to 3 hours south of Cusco. You then turn into a valley and begin the picturesque drive to that start point of the trek.

As you travel through rural Peru, with no other traveler in sight, you pass through small villages where you can see their inhabitants, in the fields tending high altitude potatoes and maize fields while also shepherding their hundreds of alpacas and llamas.

The views become grander as you snake along side a river fed from the high Andes before entering the town of Palccoyo. Here you enter the park and drive to the car park where your trek starts. The advantage of this trek is being driven to the altitude of +/- 4100 meters, leaving a short walk of about 1 hour and another 800 meters to reach the view point.

A gentle climb exposes stunning towering rock formations to your left and when you turn to your right – panoramic views of multi colored rock layers are on offer almost everywhere you look. The silence is deafening at this high altitude and with minimal people around you.

When you reach the lookout you have at your back a "rainbow mountain" as well as clear views (weather permitting) to the highest mountain in the Cusco valley – Ausangate standing at 6,384 metres / 20944 feet.

Return to your vehicle for your boxed lunch before heading back to Cusco arriving late afternoon.

INCLUDES: Transfers, English speaking guide, entrances, boxed lunch.

Looking for a more challenging – and crowded option – then ask us about the famous 1 day Rainbow Trek.
